“ Albert was a strong, sweet and compassionate man. He faced many obstacles over the time I was blessed to know him and he never gave up. No matter how hard life was or how upset he felt on the inside, he never took it out on anyone. He never showed regret or self pity. Instead, he greeted each person with a smile and a trusting friendship. Albert was the kind of man who never asked for more than he needed and struggled to accept anything extra. Even if he deserved it. I will miss his jokes. I will miss his eye rolls. I will miss preaching to him about his ice cream and chip habit. I will miss talking about his adventures and life. Albert was the type of person who changes you for the better and for that he will be missed by MANY. Thank you for making me a better version of me. Love,
Ciera
