

Earl E. Ogle

August 21, 1943 - October 31, 2012

SPRINGFIELD – Earl E. Ogle passed away at his home in Springfield, Massachusetts on October 31, 2012. Born in Sevierville, Tennessee on August 21, 1943 to Walter and Pauline (Maples) Ogle, he was raised there attending local schools. He and his brother attended high school in Sevierville with the country music singer, Dolly Parton. He also enjoyed the music of Willie Nelson and Ray Charles. His hobbies included hunting and fishing. He was a carpenter by trade and most recently self-employed. He arrived in Massachusetts in the 1960's to join his brother who was stationed at Westover Air Force Base. It was then that he met Marion Elliott while they were both working at the Hickory Hearth Restaurant on Riverdale Road in West Springfield. They married in 1965 and raised their daughter Kimberly in Springfield. Predeceased by his parents, Walter and Pauline (Maples) Ogle, a brother, Charles Ogle and two sisters, Peggy June Kirby and Patsy O'LaFollette, he leaves his wife, Marian (Elliott) Ogle; his daughter, Kimberly Yelle and her husband, Matthew and their children, Erin Quivers and Jesse Yelle of Ephrata, Pennsylvania, his siblings: Harold Ogle and his wife, Wanda of Sevierville, Tennessee, Linda Tombs of Sevierville, Tennessee, Debra Reynolds and her husband, Jim of North Carolina and Paula Ogle of Sevierville, Tennessee and many other family members. Visitation for Mr. Ogle will be held on Saturday, November 3, 2012 from 5:00–7:00 PM at New England Funeral & Cremation Center, LLC, 25 Mill Street, Springfield, MA.
