“Dear Lynn,\r\nI'm really sorry to hear about your Dad. I remember visiting with him at your home and remembering his smile and enjoying his humor and when I visited with him last in the hospital he found a way of making me smile although I knew he was not feeling well. \r\n\r\nWe both know that he is now with God in a better place with his suffering gone. I know how much his pain caused you sorrow and grief, and I found it extremely difficult to see you bear it. But, God will never give us more than we can bear, and he is with you through every step in your life. \r\n\r\nI hope you find comfort as I have in knowing that he was at home with his family as he had wanted. \r\n\r\nYour dad will always be with you; his spirit and good will be part of you no matter where you go. I know that you wanted, needed, and hoped for more time to spend with your father but the time you did spend with him meant so much to him. Your dad loved you very much and I know you will miss him terribly. \r\n\r\nI wanted to let you know that I am here for you if you need me - just to listen, or to talk. I already told you this, but I wanted to say it again. Please, don't hesitate to call me. \r\nWith my deepest sympathy, your friend, Marisol

“Lynn, receive my condolence on the passing of your father. I met him several years ago and he was always a very likeable person to be company with. I remember his constant cheerful sense of humor and pleasant mood. He will surely be missed, but I can assure you that he is in a better place now. People like him have a very special place in the spirit world awaiting resurrection. Our Heavenly Father loves all of us. I pray that you and you family find understanding and comfort during this time. God Bless all of you.\r\n\r\nSincerely,\r\nJose A. Flecha
