“ My heartfelt condolences to the entire family, and especially Joyce. We appreciate the care and comfort you have provided George through the years, and have been through a lot yourself.\r\n\r\nA lifelong regret; not having the resources and fortitude to spend more time with Dad, to get to know him and who he was, and ultimately, to help determine who I am. As time passes, we all invent excuses to avoid doing something, and there is a time when it catches up with you.\r\n\r\nI love you Dad, and God Bless you, now that you're in His arms. See you when I get there!

“ I extend my heartfelt sympathy to all of George's family. I regret that I am not able to attend the services, but know that my thoughts are with you. These occasions are sad but also bring fond memories of my childhood friendship with Steven and my ongoing one with Greg. Once again, my condolences to all, and I would be there if I could.\n\nMost Sincerely,\n\nBrian

“ Aunt Joyce,\n\nI am so sorry to hear about George. He will be missed very much. He was such a dear man. One of the nicest men I know. But you and I both know him and mom are watching over each other until the rest of us join them..
