

James L. McCannon

May 28, 1922 - May 27, 2010

Ludlow-James L. McCannon died in East Longmeadow May 27, 2010. Born in Springfield, James was a truck driver most of his life. Upon retiring he was a driver for Royal Coach Limousine, where he met and spent the rest of his life with Thelma White of Agawam. He was an avid fisherman who spent many of his winters traveling to Florida. He leaves behind his son, James McCannon, and family of Boston and his daughter, Cynthia McCannon Forcier and family of Ludlow. A life lived quietly will be remembered that way. A special thanks in his last moments to Lisa Laferriere at Wingate in East Longmeadow. All services are private and have been entrusted to New England Funeral & Cremation Center, LLC.
