“ Dearest Marie, James, Marie and Justin,\r\nIt was an honor to know Jimmy! He was such a great man. I wish I could have known him sooner...I would have connected him with my Dad who owned race horses for 40 years! My Dad passed in March, so who knows...maybe they will meet in heaven! They are at peace now and that is a blessing. You are always in our thoughts and prayers.\r\nLove, the Brunetti's
