“ You were a major part of my life for the last 4 years. You've been my best friend, my lover, my fiancé, and lastly my best friend. Through it all we have loved each other and that has never changed from beginning to the end. I will miss you my friend more than anyone knows. No one can or will ever understand what you mean to me because our relationship was an unconventional one. Appearances did not match the feelings that grew in our hearts. I knew you loved me to your dying breathe and there is no one that can ever convince me of anything else. I trust that you also knew that I loved you until your dying breathe and that no one was able to convince you of anything else. I told you that my love for you will be eternal and that is true. No one could ever love me the way you did and so there will never be another. So my best friend in the world I will miss our regular chats. What I am grateful for is that you no longer hurt. Your pain is gone and that is such a blessing because I know that you were in a great deal of pain. Soar with the angels my friend. Until we meet again - and maybe we can get it right then - I will love you forever!

“ Hey Handsome - My love for you continues as it always will. This Thanksgiving season has been difficult for me as well as for Gary and Carolyn and your family in RI. We all miss you so much. Me? I personally continue to wonder why this all happened the way it has. Why did you have to go? Why didn't we get married like we wanted to? Why isn't my name Mrs. John Niemiec? It was supposed to be. I have so many questions with no way to ever get any answers. One thing I know for sure is I love you beyond any comprehension and I will for all eternity. There will never be another - how could there be? No one could ever compare to you. No one could ever love me the way you did. I wonder what happened to your ashes and I hope they didn't get put in the woods - you would have hated that and I know that. We talked so often about what you would have wanted. Those people didn't know what you wanted. I'm so angry about that part of things. \r\n\r\nWell baby I miss you more than anyone could know more than anyone cares. I think for some you are just gone that they don't think about you - just like they didn't when you were alive. Me? I can't stop thinking about you - just like when you were alive. \r\n\r\nAll my love forever.....Candy
