“ To Judy’s family: I only just came across Judy’s obituary yesterday and was so sad that this was how I was to finally find her again. I have been searching for a long time. \n Judy is my cousin on my father’s Gautreau side of the family. Her mother was my aunt Dorothy, my father’s eldest sister. I have very fond memories of Judy from when I was a young teenager living in Vancouver, B.C. Judy was a few years older than me, but she used to write to me all the time and I’ve always treasured the penpal relationship we had. After Judy married and my aunt Dorothy passed away in 1971, our family moved to Calgary, and Judy and I lost touch. Judy was lovely and I wanted to take the time to write and offer my condolences, albeit a few years late. Please feel welcome to get in touch as I have several lovely photos of Judy you may like to have. Sincerely, Cathy Harding, Judy’s cousin.
