“Baci was a truly remarkable person. She was very strong willed and lived life to the fullest. No matter who you were you felt loved just beng around her. She had a way about her that touched so many and we are all better people because she was in our lives. I'm so very lucky to have known her. I will always cherish our visits and will always our times together. I still can't make a pierogi like her but I will always continue to try. To my dear friend. Jill im so very sorry for your loss she is w your dad I know it. I saw two cardinals this morning singing on my front yard and i thought of you. Love you all. Jules.

“We just read on the internet tonight, with sadness, of the passing of Lydia. She was a great person. We wish we had known her more than we had. Our thoughts are with you, Frank. You know that. We will all meet up in the great hereafter.
