“ It is interesting how our lives become entwined. I think it was at the Jane Alden store where Peter first met Marie. And look now, we're all related!\r\nSue and Peter

“ I just can't believe she is gone! Her picture brought back so many memories from when I was young and Evelyn and I use to play together. She was such a sweet special woman! Even after Evelyn and I married and moved in different directions, your Mother remained good friends with my Mother. She use to love to stop by and play with Tiger my Mom's toy poodle! I can still hear her laughing and calling Tiger! Both Mom and I will miss her dearly!
Love, Gail
