“ We remember Mary's sheer will to live life and love despite all setbacks and limitations. Our sister and friend was a courageous and talented woman who made a great difference in the lives of the people who knew her. We are grateful to her family of choice, Elias, Junior, and her friends and caregivers who loved and took such good care of her. Now we must let our friend go to celebrate the lightness and freedom we wish for her. Thank you, Mary, for being the better friend. See you soon enough. I love you.
