

Morrison "Scotty" Gray Jr.

July 29, 1920 - April 30, 2011

WILBRAHAM – Morrison "Scotty" Gray Jr., passed away on April 30, 2011. Born on July 29, 1920 in Ludlow, MA to the late Morrison and Robina Gray of Dundee Scotland, he was a lifelong resident of the area. During the 1930's he worked in the CCC under the Roosevelt administration and proudly served in the 8th Air Force during WWII as a B24 pilot earning the DFC. As a young boy in Springfield he was the marble champion of New Boston Rd, which led to a love of golf at which he excelled becoming a scratch golfer and Wilbraham Country Club Champion. Always calm under pressure he was in the right place at the right time to save a little girl from drowning earning recognition from the President. Scotty was predeceased by his loving wife, Jean (Allen) Gray; his sisters: Mary Malcolm, Gladys Nichols and Edith Wickett; he is survived by his brother, Alexander Gray, of Jacksonville, FL; his daughters: Elizabeth Merrill, Catherine Short, and her husband, Andrew, all of Wilbraham, MA; grandchildren: Rebecca Short, Cristian Merrill, Molly Conroy, and her husband, Michael; great grandchildren: Brooke and Michael Conroy III and Nathan Merrill. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to Shriners Hospital for Children, ATTN: Donations, 516 Carew St., Springfield, MA, 01104. New England Funeral & Cremation Center, LLC 25 Mill St., Springfield, MA is assisting the family. For expressions of sympathy please visit www.nefcc.net

Tribute Wall

JB

“ Scotty Gray was one of the finest gentleman I've ever met. I met Scotty in the mid 1970's when I joined the Country Club of Wilbraham. He was a magician with a golf club. As fellow golfers, we hated to lose, but it always hurt a little less when you lost to Scotty. My condolences to Scotty's family.

Joe Bresette - February 14, 2023 at 10:33 AM

DN

“ Scotty Gray will be remembered as my \"Uncle Mo\" for the rest of my life. I also remember him as a hero from World War II. Uncle Mo loved his family very much, and it was returned.

Douglas M. Nichols - February 14, 2023 at 10:33 AM