

Norman G. Goulet

May 10, 1957 - April 14, 2013

CHICOPEE-Norman G. Goulet, 55, died April 14, 2013. Born on May 10, 1957 in Holyoke, MA to the late Joseph E. and Lillian R. (Talbot) Goulet, he worked for Carlin Combustion in East Longmeadow, MA. Norman was a simple man, he loved Southern Classical Rock and spending time with his family. His children will fondly remember him as a dedicated father, always there for them and always punctual. He rebuilt his house from the cellar up, enjoyed keeping himself busy, and could often be heard saying that he did not know what he would do with his time once he finished his home reconstruction. While most people would cross off the days of the week on the calendar, Norman would always draw a happy face for each day. Predeceased by his parents and a brother, he leaves his son, Norman R. Goulet and his partner Danielle Holbert; daughters: Melissa A. Goulet and her partner Nicolas Costa and Mandy J. Goulet; brother, Michael P. Goulet; grandchildren, Kailey Goulet and Connor Minnie and many other family members and friends. The wake will be on Friday, April 19, 2013 from 6:00-8:00 PM at New England Funeral & Cremation Center, LLC 25 Mill St., Springfield, MA. The funeral services are April 24, 2013 at 8:15 AM at New England Funeral & Cremation Center, LLC proceeding to St. Rose de Lima Church for a Liturgy of Christian Burial at 9:30 AM with burial in St. Rose de Lima Cemetery. ME

“Dad,
Things have been absolutely awful down here. Nick passed away on January 8th, and my life has been flipped upside down. I know you greeted him at the gates of Heaven, please help him out any way that you can. Easter was not the same without the 2 most important men in my life, You and Nick. Melia looks so much like him, but she has the curliest hair and that is all Goulet! I am posting a picture of Nick, Myself and Melia June 3rd 2023 - Melia's 1st Birthday. I love & Miss you SOOOOO MUCH!!!!

“My sympathy to Norm's family. \n\n\n I'll always remember Norm as the guy who, no matter how crazy it got at work, always had a joke or something to say that would make you smile. I'll miss him.\n\n\n Norm, rest in peace.

“ Rest Peacefully Dad, I know your up in Heaven with Grandma, Grandpa, and Uncle Bob. Me, Norman and Mandy are completely devastated that your gone, The only Peace we have is knowing you passed in your sleep, and didn't feel a thing. Every time the Sun shines down on me, I will know it's you <3 I still can't fully believe your gone, I know that I will NEVER want to, But one thing is for sure I know you'll ALWAYS be watching down on us <3 I LOVE & MISS YOU SO MUCH!!!!

“ I still can't believe that you're gone \ud83d\ude14 I know that you welcomed Tommy w open arms. And shortly thereafter you Welcomed Ludacris \ud83d\udc3e w a belly rub. I know that you'll be waiting at the gate for me when it is my time, but it's so hard living here without you Dad!!! I love you to the moon and back. Keep shining down on me until my time has come!!! I LOVE YOU SO MUCH ❤️
