“ I can't express the emotions that run through me right now, Im so sorry for the loss that Pamla (she understands how i spelt her name) and Richard, Randy, Tony, and Joey are going through, Pam you know how much I love you, and I know the struggles that you are going to face, and I wish i could take away atleast the pain for all of you. but i cant. but I will be there with you every step of the way, every time any of you need me, I am only a phone call away, and I have a heavy foot when I need to. I love Randy too. and I will miss him so damn much. but im at peace with the fact that he no longer suffers, he did that long enough. when your feeling sad remember all the good times, heck remember the tough times, talk about him often. and know that you were his life, I never met someone else who loved someone more the he did you. know he is always with you. I LOVE YOU \r\n

“ I may not have seen you much as we grew older and lived our own lives but I will always have the memories when we were children and spent allot of time together, I always carried my love for you, Randy in my heart from long distance. Pam, I am truly sorry for your loss and the long battle ahead of you without the love of your life, I am here for you even tho we are far apart and don't know each other really well, you are still family and will always be in my heart and thank you for taking care of Randy and always being there for him as I am sure he was always there for you. May he R.I.P. and may God help you get through the rough road.
