“ I was a friend of the family in Logansport, In. in the 1950's. I was a close friend of Richard's brother and spent a lot of time while we were young, playing softball during summers. I often remember those times.
R I P Richard and thank you for your service.

“ We will miss our neighbor, Gil. We used to chat in the yard, and when he and his lovely wife, Virginia used to walk, we often had a fun hello. Wonderful neighbors who will be missed. We are so pleased their lovely home will be occupied by family to begin new memories. Our condolences to the family...Marti and Joe
