

Robert J. Cameron

July 31, 1966 - December 23, 2010

Westfield - Robert (Skip) J.

Cameron, Jr., 44, died suddenly on December 23, 2010 at Baystate Hospital.

He lived most of his life in Westfield.

He graduated from Westfield

Vocational High

School; where he was class President for his junior and senior years, and Valedictorian for his graduating year. In his younger years, he worked at McDonald's and Radio Shack. Later on, he worked in a foundry for several years. For the last several years, because of his health issues, he worked as a part-time handy man. Skip was an avid Star Wars and Star Trek fan; he also liked model trains. He also loved working on and repairing computers. Last January, he went with a group of people from the Pioneer Valley Baptist Chapel in Chicopee. They went to Mississippi to help people rebuild from Hurricane Katrina. He was also planning on going again this January.

He leaves his mother Shirley (Richards) Cameron and his future step father Thomas LaPanne III, his father Robert Cameron Sr. and step mother Debra Cameron from Ohio, 1 step sister, 2 step brothers, 2 step nieces

Elyssa and Courtney, his aunts Patricia Greenia of Westfield, Sandra Peters from Saint Albans, Vermont, Gertrude Bragg of Fitchburg, Ma, Mary Lou Cameron of Lampasas, Texas, Marceline Sitler of Berwick, PA, and an Uncle Donald Cameron of Finger, Tennessee, and numerous cousins. He also leaves two God children Patty Vanoostveen and Amanda Forgey of Westfield. Skip also leaves a lot of really good friends.

A Memorial Service will be held on Sunday, January 16, 2011 at 2:00 PM at First Congregational Church, 18 Broad Street, Westfield MA. New England Funeral & Cremation Center, LLC, 25 Mill Street, Springfield, MA is assisting the family.
