“ I am here because I want every one to know what a good man Bob was. It was love at first sight. He moved in about 4 months later. He worked hard, driving back and forth to Vermont. Some times I went with him. He called me every day to say “I love you, and keep smiling” Every week I got a bouquet of flowers. He helped move friends from work. But most of all, he was the happiest at home with me and my two daughters. He was always joking, smiling. I am going to miss him so much. The house is empty. God called him home- no more suffering. Our hearts forever.
