

Rosalyn E. Semprit

May 22, 2020 - May 22, 2020

Rosalyn was born sleeping on May 22, 2020. She went to play with the Angels due to complications from Turner Syndrome. Her mommy held her in her womb for 21 weeks & will hold her forever in her heart. Baby Rosie is survived by her parents Shaina L. Fontaine of West Brookfield Ma. and Alexander N. Semprit of Ware Ma., who joyfully awaited her arrival to come in the fall of 2020. Her big sister Sierra had prayed to God many times asking for a baby sister and wanted to be the first person to hold her. Rosalyn's big brothers Ashton and Levi looked forward to singing silly songs and watching baby cartoons with her.

Rosalyn also leaves behind an abundance of other family and friends who would love to have known her and watch her grow.

Joining Heaven with her great Auntie Kelly J. Fontaine of Monson Ma. and her paternal Grandmother Elizabeth A. Gagnon of Ware Ma. whom she was named after.

New England Funeral & Cremation Center, LLC, 25 Mill Street, Springfield, MA has been entrusted with the arrangements. Visit www.nefcc.net Come to Me God saw you were getting tired, And a cure was not to be, So he put his arms around you, And whispered, "Come to Me." With tearful eyes we watched you on the ultrasound, Then soon you passed away. Although we loved you dearly, We could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, Hard working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

Tribute Wall

CD

“ God Bless your little Angel 👼 Rosalyn 🙏💖 You Shaina, have been such a loving and nurturing Mommy. You and your 3 children have their very own angel. Always here for you and in spirit, in my prayers ❤️ 🦋

Carol Delaney - February 14, 2023 at 10:05 AM

CA

“ 😇🙏🙏

Cpt. Andy - February 14, 2023 at 10:05 AM

MB

“ Rosalyn, You have been loved since the day of your inception. Your mother is strong and will see you again one day. May God bless you and your family.

Maurice Bracken - February 14, 2023 at 10:05 AM