“ Scott was one of the few people I know who would argue with anybody about everything but he would never allow the argument to ruin the friendship he had with the person. He was always there whenever anyone needed him, with a smile, or a laugh, or to just be there. Scott touched so many different peoples lives some for a very short time but even they remember him with fond memories, he left a lasting impression everywhere he went to everyone he met. Life just isn't the same without Scotty around and we all feel the loss of someone as special as he was.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to Scott's family and friends in this difficult time in their lives. I had known scott for many years. He was a amazing guy who at times struggled with difficulties in his life but always seemed to be a strong enough person to get through them, he was always there if you needed someone to talk to and a great friend he will be missed by many and never forgotten!! I hope that his memory will live on for the sake of his precious daughter that he always praised and was so proud to call her his daughter. You will be missed scott may you finally rest in peace!!
