“ So many great memories of my childhood were right across the street at Ziggy’s house. My favorite memory will always be looking out my kitchen window, yelling “Hey Ziggy!” And ducking down. He always knew it was me but he’d look around trying to figure out who it was. Rest In Peace Ziggy

“ Sue, Matt, Sally & Harvey,\r\nMy deepest sympathies to all of you! May your dad rest in peace and may God guide him back to your mom. There will be lots of laughter when they meet again. Hold onto those memories of all the laughter that was shared at your house....it was always such a fun place to be.

“ Sue, Matt, Sally & Harvey were so deeply sorry of the loss of your Dad. We have so many memories of talking to your Mom & Dad over the fence. I still expect to see Ziggy sitting outside with Pierogi. Your parents were the best neighbor anyone could ask for.
