

William Leroy Daggett

July 13, 1934 - February 5, 2025

William Leroy Daggett, 90, of Holyoke, Massachusetts passed away on February 5, 2025 at the Soldiers' Home in Holyoke. Born on July 13, 1934 in Pembroke, Maine to the late Donald and Helen (Thompson) Daggett, William served in the United States Navy in the Korean war. For many years he was a machine operator at Wireland Products. He loved fishing, the outdoors, traveling to Maine and trips to Foxwoods Casino. He is survived by his two sons: Gary Daggett and his partner Irene Skoczylas of West Brookfield, MA and Barry Daggett of Feeding Hills, MA, many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his daughter Gisele Lamsey. Family and friends are invited to gather at New England Funeral & Cremation Center, 25 Mill Street, Springfield on Friday, February 14, 2025 at 9:00AM to process to the Massachusetts Veterans' Memorial Cemetery, 1390 Main Street, Agawam, MA for a service with Military Honors. Please visit William's memorial page at nefcc.net for expressions of sympathy.

Previous Events

Gather to Process

FEB 14. 9:00 AM (ET)

New England Funeral & Cremation Center
25 Mill Street
Springfield, MA 01108
(413) 733-1522
info@nefcc.net
<https://www.nefcc.net/>

Memorial Service - Military Honors

FEB 14. 10:00 AM (ET)

Massachusetts Veterans' Memorial Cemetery
1390 Main Street
Agawam, MA 01001

Tribute Wall

MB

“ He would come up here every summer with his friend and he would go to my Aunt Laura's house and my mother Norma they had so much fun together eating clams and lobsters and laughing my mom missed him when he stopped coming up he was a nice guy

Marlene Barrett - February 23, 2025 at 08:41 AM

JC

“ Billy came to visit every summer and he loved his clams and lobster. had many laughs with Billy and friend Bernie..They also came every hunting season..Lots of memories <3

Judy Cantwell - February 09, 2025 at 08:23 PM

NE

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

NEFCC - February 06, 2025 at 03:01 PM